GENEALOGY

OF THE

LUM FAMILY

By EDWARD H. LUM

PREFACE

During the last twenty years, in the midst of a busy life, I have been gathering together genealogical items of the Lum family, and in order that these records might be preserved, I have decided to publish a limited number of copies of the records. My main work has been to dig out the early relationships, and I think I have made some discoveries that might be lost forever, if not put in shape for preservation. While the publication is dated in the year 1927, the records of some branches of the family are not carried down to date, but near enough to be of value to all who bear the name of Lum, and to those closely allied to that name. I have endeavored to trace the marriages of Lum girls, and in some cases have carried down their families to one or more generations. My special work has been to trace the descendants of John Lum, my own immigrant ancestor, but I have also collected considerable data of the Maryland family descended from another early immigrant. I have also given the meager records of several immigrants to this country who came over from Yorkshire, England in latter years. Of course there will be some mistakes, due to the fact that some correspondents are not careful enough, and do not appreciate the importance of correct dates, etc., and due also to clerical error in copying. While the work of compiling these records has been very great, it has been a pleasant task, and I shall feel compensated, if my labor of love is appreciated, as I believe it will be.

EDWARD H. LUM.

COAT OF ARMS

From Burke's General Armory described as
"Or, three mullets sable"

ORIGIN OF NAME

In the last (1909) edition of the Loomis Genealogy, there is a chapter on the origin of the surname by Charles A. Hoppin, Gr., who, after exhaustive research, has concluded that the name is derived from the Saxon words "lum" and "halgh." In explaining the etymology he says the word "lum" anciently had various meanings in different parts. "Lum" in the Shetland Islands meant a rift, an opening in the sky, and clearing up of fog. In the County of Norfolk, England, a "lum" was the handle of an oar. "Lum" also meant to rain heavily. In Scotland, Ireland and the Northern English Counties of Durham and Yorkshire a "lum" meant a chimney, the vent by which the smoke issued, as in Grant's Chronicles of Kechleton: "She heard a voice cryin' doon her ain lum." Further South and West in Yorkshire and in Derbyshire and in the West Riding of Yorkshire, close to the border of Salford Hundred in Lancaster County, "lum" meant (1) a small wood or grove, (2) a wood bottom growing shrubs and trees, not fit for mowing. In Lancashire, also in Counties Derby and Oxford "lum" meant a deep pool in the bed of a river. Halliwell sums the word up as "a woody valley, a deep pit." Thus these latter ancient usages were descriptive of locality, territorial, and had direct reference to a certain definite place, or places, in the natural topography of Lancashire and adjoining parts. The above is taken from a reply by John T. Loomis of Washington, D. C., in "Notes and Queries" of Nov. 5, 1910.

George Denison Lumb of Leeds, England, in the same issue of "Notes and Queries" says: "the name Lumb or Lum is derived from Danish or Norse words meaning a ravine or deep wooded valley, as stated by the late Canon J. C. Atkinson. There is a good example of a Lumb at Drighlington near Leeds; and there are others in the Halifax district, where there are numerous families of the name. The name occurs chiefly in the hills of the Yorkshire clothing district, and the printed registers of Halifax, Elland, and Barwick-in-Elmet have the most numerous entries. The ancestors of the Irish baronet Sir Francis Lum, I have reason to think, resided near Halifax. The name has been written variously Lom(b), Lum(b), Lome, Lumm, etc. There have been Lombes in Norfolk since an early date, the principal family being represented by the Lombes of Bylaugh."

J. Holden MacMichael in the same issue of "Notes and Queries" says: "Lumb is a place name in East Lancashire, near Rochdale and it seems that we need not go to Scotland for the origin, since in the North Country Lakeland, Lancashire, Cheshire, Derbyshire and Oxfordshire a 'lum' (without the b) is a deep pool in the bed of a river—Scottish fiction has made us familiar with a 'lum' in the sense of a chimney, but it can hardly be surmised that the surname is traceable to this. A 'lum' in Yorkshire, Derbyshire and the North Country generally is also a small wood or grove; in West Yorkshire 'a wood bottom' growing shrubs and trees, and not fit for mowing."

"Scotus" in the same issue of "Notes and Queries" writes: "But for the difficulty of proving a negative, one might be tempted to say that Lum is not a Scottish family name at all. There is, of course, the Scottish word 'lum' meaning a chimney; but the family name Lum is said to signify 'a clump of trees.' At all events, the surname Lum is extremely rare in Scotland. I have met with only one instance of its occurrence. According to the 'Edinburgh Marriage Registers,' under date of July 5, 1677, Samuel Lum, writing master, was married to Margaret Smyth by Mr. James Ludie. Compound words like Lumsden are frequent in Scotland, but Lum as a family name, so far as I am aware, is almost entirely unknown."

The name Lum runs back to very early date.. A Richard Lum(b) of Barwick in Elmet was traced back to 1277-1290 when Richard Lomb of Lynn occurs, and in a subsidy of 1301 Richard Lom of Yaffroth near Northallerton occurs. In the poll tax for 1379 Richard Lome was taxed at Barwick in Elmet and also Agnes and Alice Lome. In the subsidy of 1598 Richard Lome of Wakefield paid 8 sh., and in more recent times Richard Lumb 1726-1807, a Wakefield merchant, resided there and at Ackton Hall, near Pontefract.

Before I began to compile this work, much "information" was given as to the foreign source of the family. Some said it was a Scotch family, because the name Lum meant a chimney in Scottish tongue, and because the family had so many Scotch traits of character. This I found was a mere coincidence. Others said it was Irish because there were Lums in Dublin, and a place near there called Lumville. This is found to be named for an early settler from Yorkshire, England. Still others said we were descended from "three brothers" who came from Wales. This thought, I concluded, came from the fact that John Lum in the early days of Southampton, L. I., was one of three persons selected to cut up the Whales which drifted in upon the shore. There were some who even said we were Chinese, but a letter addressed to a Claude Lum in a distant city of America, was answered by his mother, Mrs. Di Kong Lum, who said her husband came from China, that he could trace his ancestry back five hundred years, that he was of noble blood, and "no relation." Apparently this is another case of coincidence.

There is not the slightest doubt but that we are of English extraction. The name is found in Yorkshire Co., England, hundreds of years before it appears elsewhere. Whether of Saxon or Norse derivation is a question, but the 13th Century finds the name in England, and no where else unless it be in China. The earliest settlers of the name in this country, if associations mean anything, came from England. Emigrants of more recent times, both under the name of Lum and Lumb, all came from Yorkshire, England. While L-u-m appears to be the earliest spelling of the name, many of the family still residing in Yorkshire spell the name L-u-m-b. In this country some have intentionally added an "m," making it Lumm. Henry T. Lumb of "Levi Lumb's Son" of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., wrote in 1910 that this grandfather, Thomas Lumb, was a son of John Lumb of Mills Bridge, near Huddersfield, Yorkshire, Eng., and came to this country about 1841, and settled at Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Mrs. Eliza M. Lumb of Cambridge, Mass., wrote that she was the widow of William Lum who was born May 24, 1819, the same day and hour as Queen Victoria, in Huddersfield, Eng., and that he came to Philadelphia just before he was 21, and after a short time went to New York, and in 1849 or 1850 came to Boston where he was in the plumbing business till 1900, and that he died in Oct., 1908. Frank J. Lumb of Auburn, N. Y., wrote in 1914 that his father is Frank Lum, has a brother Hardy who is a minister with church at Cayuga, N. Y., and a sister Winifred; that they came to this country in 1905 from Yorkshire, Eng., that his grandfather was born in 1830 in Halifax, Eng., that his grandmother was still living there aged 86 and that his great-grandfather was a school-master somewhere around Halifax, Eng.

NOTES

There are a number of Lums in Western Maryland and Southern Pennsylvania of whose existence I have learned, but from whom I can learn little. They are believed to be connected with the Maryland Branch of the family.

It might not be out of place to call attention to some mistakes of others affecting Lum Genealogy. In book 25, page 482 of Wills, published by the New York Historical Society, is the will of John Lum of Huntington, L. I., whose will is dated Nov. 20, 1754, and probated May 28, 1767. After very considerable labor in trying to identify this John Lum, I found it was not John Lum at all, but John Lewis.

In Essex Co., N. J., Book of Marriage Records is an Easter Lum who was married March 25, 1828, to William Taylor. After hunting all over for Easter Lum, I found she was Esther Lyon, daughter of Samuel Lyon, see Orphans' Court Records Jan. Term 1821, Book E-31, Essex Co.

In the Frost Genealogy is given the marriage of George Lum and Lucy M. Frost born Sept. 20, 1825. His daughter Mrs. Lucy MacLafferty wrote from Aberdeen, Washington, that her father was George Luin and came from Stuttgart, Germany.

In the Morristown Church Records, as published, is the marriage of Sarah Luman and Silas Byram. It should be Sarah Lum and Silas Bowen.

Other errors have been found, but it is not material to mention them here.

LUM GENEALOGY

I JOHN LUM

John Lum is supposed to have been born about 1620 in Yorkshire, England. The first record of him in this country is at Stamford, Conn., where he is in the list of pioneers in ———ember, 1642, (sic the record). He was granted a home lot and land in the field to be enclosed, and was there to the end of the year. He was at Hempstead, Long Island, in 1644 and next appears at Southampton, L I., June 17, 1651, where he was granted an hundred acre lot and rights on Feb. 10, 1653, at Southampton. John Lum posseseth in the right of Thomas Burnett, one acre in "the Little Plain," and on Mch. 23, 1653, Josiah Stansborough bought the 100 acre Lum lot, No. 18, and later to wit: Feb., 1654, John Lum has another 100 acre lot, No. 10, in the Sagabonac division. Later he moved from there to Huntington, L. I., where he was located in 1657. John Lum was a witness to the purchase agreement of Jonas Wood and Indians at Huntington, July 23, 1657. In Southampton town records, Vol. 2, pages 18, 19, 20, under date of Aug. 20, 1660, it is stated that John Lum has moved to Huntington, that he has been of the "North Sea" Community (Ogden's) in Southampton bounds, that a son, Samuel stays in Southampton, and that a son, Matthew returns to Southampton to do blacksmithing. On Feb. 19, 1662, John Lum of Huntington was chosen deputy to Court of Elections at Hartford, Ct. Applicants for settlement in Huntington July 6, 1662, were to be approved by John Lum and others. He was constable at Huntington, Apl. 6, 1663, and among those selected to choose freemen. In Huntington records under date of May 1, 1667, it is stated that John Matthews sold to Thomas Wicks, Jr., the lot he purchased of John Lum, now of Fairfield, Ct., for 200 lbs. in part payment for which he gave John Lum a mortgage. In the will of Thomas Wicks of Huntington dated June 13, 1670, the testator devises to his son Thomas, the lot that was John Lum's. On Aug. 20, 1660, John Scott acknowledged that he sold to John Rose all that house and lot situated at the North sea, which did belong to John Lum, now of Huntington. This is a corner lot north side of road to the landing, and even now or lately called Lum's lot. On Sept. 12, 1694, Benjamin Foster sells to Ezekial Sandford a parcel of land "I had of John Lum" and which was given to him by the town, bounded S. by said Ezekial Sandford, W. by Kelley's Pond, N. by Common land, 8 acres. In the small book of deeds of Southampton, page 89, it is stated Richard Howell conveys to Benjamin Davis four acres laid out for a home lot which he purchased of John Lum.

John Lum was at Fairfield, Ct., Nov. 1, 1673, when John Knowles writes his will and leaves a bequest (a shote) to "John Lum (spelt Loom) who hath been very helpful to me in my sickness." See Fairfield Records, Vol. 2, page 71. John Lum is a witness to the will. John Knowles died in 1686 according to Fairfield records of deeds and appears to have lived near the center of what is now Fairfield, and it is presumed that John Lum was a near neighbor, though no record of lands in his name are found. This is the last record found of John Lum. No will, no estate, nor any record of death is found, but it is safe to say he died in Fairfield, or possibly Derby, Ct. In Halifax, Yorkshire parish register, Vol. 37, page 295, a Jonas Wood, son of Richard, is stated to have been baptized Aug. 2, 1584, and on page 349 a John Lum, son of George, of Halifax, it is stated, was baptized Feb. 18, 1592. It is possible these may have been the fathers respectively of Jonas Wood and John Lum who came to this country and married sisters, the daughters of Sergeant John Strickland. Jonas Wood md. Joanna Strickland in 1644. John Lum md. ——— Strickland. Her first name has not been found. John Strickland was at Charlestown, Mass., 1630, Watertown, 1632, Wethersfield, Ct., 1635, Stamford, Ct., 1640, Hempstead, L. I., 1644, and Jamaica, L. I., 1672. In his will he leaves a bequest (cow) to his eldest daughter, the wife of John Lum. John Strickland had a son "Twait" who died intestate in Hartford in June, 1670, and Benjamin Hinman and his wife Elizabeth, believed to be the daughter of John Lum, had a son "Wait," no doubt named for her uncle, though the spelling is different. Benjamin Hinman had a son Noah (a Judge) baptized July, 1689, who md. Feb. 28, 1710-11, Anna Knowles of Fairfield, Ct. It is supposed that John Lum md. Miss ——— Strickland at Stamford, Ct., about 1642. The children of John and ——— (Strickland) Lum were probably as follows:

2 I Samuel, b. about 1644.

II Matthew, b. about 1646, d. 1670.

He was a blacksmith, returned from Huntington to Southampton and was granted a lot there Nov. 4, 1668, of three acres for smithy at South end of town and ten acres of woodland on condition that he do the town smith work for seven years at reasonable rates. He died unmarried in 1670 and in Session book No. 1 Suffolk Co. Clerk's office, deposited there Apl. 9, 1877, from Southampton, is the nuncupative will of Matthew Lum which was probated in a court of Sessions Mch. 1, 1670, by which will he devised all his property to his brother Samuel.

3 III Sarah, b. about 1652, d. 1684.

IV Elizabeth, b. about 1662, d. 1709.

Elizabeth was baptized at Middlebury, Conn., in May, 1684, and according to record was adult from Long Island. She was married July 12, 1684, to Benjamin Hinman, third son of Sergeant Edward and Frances (Stiles) Hinman, who was born in Feb., 1662-3, at Stratford, Conn. This is the first marriage record at Woodbury, Conn., and is certified by Justice Rickbell, who declared them man and wife. Benjamin Hinman was a farmer and settled at White Oak in Southbury, Conn. In 1712 he was taxed for the "North Purchase" (Bethlem). He represented Woodbury in General Court of Colony twice in 1711. Elizabeth, his wife, united with the First Cong. Church at Woodbury June 14, 1691. They had thirteen children. She died on Bullet Hill on Main St., Southbury, Conn., in 1709. Her husband died at same place in 1727.

V Hannah, b. about 1664.

Hannah was baptized with her sister at Middlebury, Conn., in May, 1684, and according to the record was an adult from Long Island. According to Savage, Vol. 3, page 462, she married Nehemiah Porter (son of Daniel of Farmington, Conn.), who was born Oct. 24, 1656, and died in 1722.

4 VI Jonathan, b. about 1666, d. 1758.

2 SAMUEL LUM

As heretofore stated Samuel Lum remained in Southampton when his father and others of the family went to Huntington. No records of his birth and death have been found. He had a grant of twelve acres May 11, 1677. His dwelling is mentioned Sept. 24, 1683. An estimate of Samuel Lum's property in year 1683 was given as 76 pounds. He had ten acres laid out to him Oct. 2, 1685, east side of Kelley's pond. Mark Meiggs in Huntington Mch. 26, 1672, gives by will with the advice of his wife Avis all his property in Old and New England after the death of Avis to Samuel Lum, son of John Lum, whom he accounts his "adopted son." In Howell's History of Southampton, page 431, he says John Lum lived in Huntington in 1660, formerly of "North Sea" and is mentioned as having a son still living in Southampton who is said to be heir of Mark Meiggs of Huntington and is living in the "Mecox Settlement." On March 1, 1658, it was ordered by the court in Southampton that Mr. Ogden and Samuel Clark take possession of property of Mark Meiggs and adjust his debts. No record of probate of will can be found. On July 13, 1674, Mark Meiggs of Stratford, Fairfield Co., Conn., formerly of Huntington, L. I., deeded all his property to Jacob Walker, his loving friend of Stratford, as he is "growing ancient." (See Huntington Town Records, Vol. 1, page 208). What is meant by the expression "adopted son" is not known. Possibly Samuel Lum lived with Mark Meiggs, when his father went away to Huntington, or he may have been a son-in-law. There is a record of Samuel Lum and wife Hannah, and sons Samuel and Matthew and daughters Abigail and Hannah. He may have had other children. Nothing is known further of the daughters. It is believed that Samuel Lum married Hannah Meiggs and that their children were:

- 5 I Samuel, b. about 1672.
- 6 II Matthew, b. about 1674.
- III Abigail, b. about 1675.
- IV Hannah, b. about 1677.

3. SARAH LUM

md. Oct. 27, 1670, Job Sayre, who was born at Lynn, Mass., or Southampton, Long Island, about 1638/40, d. Apl. 1, 1694, the son of Thomas. Sarah, d. Oct. 29, 1684, and Job md. 2ndly, June 18, 1685, Hannah Howell, dau. of Thurston Raynor, and widow of Arthur Howell. Arthur Howell in his will dated at Southampton, Mch. 28, 1683, prob. July 5, 1683, names wife Hannah, and appoints Job Sayre and others supervisors, and Job Sayre is a witness. The children of Job Sayre and wife Sarah were:

- I Job, b. Aug. 25, 1672, md. Susanna Howell.
- II Benjamin, b. Aug. 9, 1674.
- III James, b. Sept. 12, 1676, d. Apl. 16, 1731.
He came to Elizabethtown, N. J., was constable there in 1712, surveyor of highways 1718, and died there and was buried in 1st Churchyard. He had wife Sarah, but no children. His will names other relatives.
- IV Elizabeth, b. Mch. 1, 1678.
- V Sarah, b. May 4, 1680, md. ——— Lyman.
- VI Abraham, b. July 5, 1683, md. Hannah ———.

4 JONATHAN LUM

The first appearance of this Jonathan is in 1695 when he had a lot in Derby, Conn. He purchased land of Indians there Aug. 15, 1698. Orcutt conjectures he was son of John Lum. He was a selectman of Derby, 1703, 1712, 1725. With others he gave a home lot in Derby in 1696 to Josiah Baldwin, a physician. His ear mark entered May 10, 1708, was one-half penny on the underside of the near or left ear. A home lot laid out to him in Jan., 1702/3, contained 22 acres. On June 9, 1735, John Smith, Sr., of Derby conveys $\frac{1}{2}$ of property in New Milford, Conn., to Jonathan Lum, and on Apl. 9, 1736, Jonathan Lum conveys this same lot to his son Samuel. He married three times, 1st, Oct. 10, 1700, Sarah Riggs, b. Feb. 24, 1683, the dau. of Ensign Samuel Riggs and his wife Sarah Baldwin, who were married June 14, 1680. Samuel Riggs was son of Edward Riggs, Jr., and grandson of Edward Riggs, Sr. Sarah Baldwin, baptized Apl. 1, 1649, was dau. of Richard and Elizabeth (Alsop) Baldwin. Jonathan Lum md. 2ndly at New Milford, Conn., Church, Mch. 2, 1741/2, Lydia Bronson, widow of Deacon Samuel Bronson. Lydia was born or baptized at Waterbury, Conn., Mch. 13, 1680/1, the dau. of John Warner, Jr., and wife Ann (Norton) Warner, who were md. June 28, 1649. Lydia was a practicing physician, driving from house to house. Jonathan Lum md. 3rdly, Ruth Castle, Jan. 14, 1746, dau. of William Castle, baptized June 2, 1723, admitted to church at Woodbury, Mch. 28, 1742, and died at Woodbury, Oct. 22, 1767. The Woodbury records say a Ruth Castle was born there Aug. 6, 1705, the dau. of Henry and Hannah (Squire) Castle who were married at Woodbury

Apl. 20, 1699. It is believed by some that the younger Ruth Castle was the wife of Jonathan Lum. Jonathan Lum's will is dated Dec. 3, 1756, prob. Oct. 6, 1758, in New Haven, Conn. He names wife Ruth, sons John and Jonathan, heirs of Samuel Lum, his deceased son, son Joseph, heirs of dau. Sarah Durand, deceased, and dau. Elizabeth, wife of Daniel Hull. His children were all of the first marriage and were as follows:

- I Sarah, b. Nov. 24, 1701.
 Sarah Lum md. Nov. 5, 1730, John Durand, son of Dr. John and Elizabeth (Bryan) Durand. He lived at Seymour, Conn., and died Mch. 8, 1773. Sarah died before 1747. They had three children, and John Durand md. 2ndly, June 2, 1747, Sarah Chatfield and they had seven children.
- 7 II John, b. July 17, 1703, d. Mch. 24, 1786.
- 8 III Samuel, b. ———, 1706, d. ———, 1744.
- 9 IV Jonathan, b. ———, 1710, d. Feb. 25, 1802.
- V Elizabeth, b. Mch. 15, 1713, d. ———.
 Elizabeth Lum md. Mch. 2, 1732, Daniel Hull, son of John and Mary (Merwin) Hull, who was born in 1699. They had a large family. (See Hull genealogy.)
- 10 VI Joseph, b. Jan. 14, 1715, d. Feb. 24, 1796.

5 SAMUEL LUM

In Southampton Town records, Vol. 2, page 333, it is said Jonathan Raynor sells to his "kinsman" Samuel Lum 50 acres right of Commonage Mch. 2, 1696. This is thought to be the above Samuel Lum, but just how he was a "kinsman" is not discovered. It is known that Jonathan Raynor's wife was Sarah Pierson, whom he married June 2, 1680. Possibly it refers to Jonathan Raynor's sister Hannah, who first married Arthur Howell and as widow Howell md. Job Sayre, whose first wife was Sarah Lum, dau. of John Lum. Samuel Lum had ear marks granted 1700-1705. It is not known who Samuel Lum's wife was, but he would appear to have had children:

- I John, b. about 1695 d. ———, 1716.
 He came to Elizabethtown, N. J., and died there in 1716. He was probably a young man, as his estate consisted of about £15, clothes and shoemaker's outfit, according to inventory in Trenton, N. J. His will dated June 27, 1715, was prob. Oct. 24, 1716. He calls himself Cordwainer of Elizabethtown, Co. of Essex, "being sick and weak of body" leaves all to his dear brother Samuel of Bridgehampton, L. I. He names his beloved friends and kinsmen Mr. Jonas Wood and Mr. James Sayre, Exrs. The seal is a horse's head with crest thought to be that of Christopher Wood. The witnesses were Jonathan Dickinson, John Burwell, Jr., and Christopher Wood, and the will was probably drawn by Rev. Jonathan Dickinson. It is thought he fell a victim to smallpox or consumption. The brother Samuel probably came soon after and got the property left to him.

- II Samuel, b. about 1698, d. ———, 1732/3.

6 MATTHEW LUM

According to Vol I, page 239, of Southampton Town records he was Trustee Apl. 1, 1712. He had ear marks entered 1700 to 1705. In Apl. 7, 1730, record speaks of land owned formerly by Matthew Lum now deceased, whether this refers to this Matthew or his uncle Matthew, the blacksmith, is uncertain. He witnessed will at Southampton of John Lupton which is not dated, but probated Mch. 30, 1716. Vol. 2, page 60, in entry dated May 2, 1726, Theo. Pierson, Southampton, gives away in will $\frac{1}{3}$ of a lot he bought of Matthew Lum lying with John Cooper, being 12A land near S. E. cor. of town of Southampton. It has been said by some supposed to be descendants of this Matthew that he died in Morris County, N. J., in 1735. Whom he married is not known, nor how many children he had, but the following are believed to have been his:

- I Matthew, b. 1707, d. May 21, 1777.
 II Obadiah, b. Mch. 10, 1708, d. Oct., 1783.
 III Daniel, b. ———, 1714, d. Oct. 10. 1755.

7 JOHN LUM

John Lum married Silence Clark of West Haven, Conn., daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (Lauc) Clark. She was born Oct. 31, 1703, died Nov. 10, 1794, aged 92. Deacon John, as he was known, and Silence, wife, were buried at Seymour, Conn., where there are headstones. There were no children. Distribution of his estate mentions (1) widow, (2) heirs of Sarah, wife of John Durand, eldest sister, (3) heirs of Samuel, eldest brother, (4) Lieut. Jonathan, second brother, (5) heirs of Elizabeth Hull, second sister, (6) Captain Joseph, youngest brother. Distribution dated 1786, proves that John had no children surviving. Administration on estate of Silence Lum was granted Nov. 19, 1794; insolvent and no distribution. John Lum's will is dated Feb. 25, 1786, N. Haven, Vol. 15, page 35/6, gives to Jonathan, Jr., and brother Jonathan and wife Silence, Hannah Fairchild and Isaac Bennett, remainder to brothers and sisters or their heirs; Exrs. Jonathan Lum, Jr., and Samuel Russell. Estate was divided June 1, 1787. John Lum and Silence, his wife, Joseph Russell and Elizabeth, his wife, all of Derby, Conn., and Josiah Bacon and Sibil, his wife, of Middletown, Conn., gave quit-claim deed dated April 6, 1767, to all right to lands that "belongeth to us," laid out to Joseph Clark, Sr., in the 6th division of Township of New Haven, to Ebenezer Punderson of Groton in New London Co., Conn.

8 SAMUEL LUM

Samuel Lum married Dec. 7, 1730, Hannah Ted of Huntington, Conn., according to the church records of that place. He settled in Derby, Conn., and two of his children were born there. He moved about 1736 to New Milford where his father had bought lands. Samuel Lum and Josiah Smith divide property in New Milford, Jan. 7, 1736/7, and they convey property in Wood Creek meadow Mch. 26, 1742, to John Prindle of New Milford. Samuel Lum's will dated May 7, 1744, at Woodbury, Conn., names wife Hannah and children Jonathan, Samuel, Andrew and Hannah. Hannah, wife of Samuel Lum joined church at New Milford, Conn., May 30, 1736. Some time after the death of her husband she married Abraham Bostwick as shown by deed dated at New Milford, Dec. 21, 1749, signs as Extrix. of former husband Samuel Lum, deceased. Abraham Bostwick's first wife was Hannah Collins, md. Sept. 14, 1732; had several children. She died Jan. 17, 1742/3. Abraham and Hannah (Ted) (Lum) Bostwick had children, one Joshua, b. Feb. 22, 1749. Hannah, 2nd wife of Abraham Bostwick, d. Dec. 8, 1782. Samuel Canfield was appointed Gdn. of Samuel and Jonathan, and widow Hannah, Gdn. of Hannah and Andrew. On Nov. 20, 1755,

Samuel Lum of New Milford was appointed Gdn. of his bro. Jonathan, formerly of New Milford, "now" resident of Derby, Conn. On Mch. 7, 1753, Samuel, Jonathan and Andrew, heirs of Samuel Lum, dec'd, received land laid out to them in New Milford, Conn. Samuel Canfield and Hannah Lum, Gdns. of the heirs of Samuel Lum, dec'd, give deed Jan. 10, 1745/6, to Josiah Smith. The children of Samuel and Hannah (Ted) Lum were:

- 15 I Samuel, b. Feb. 19, 1733.

- 23 V Reuben, b. Mch. 22, 1754, d. July 22, 1829.

11 SAMUEL LUM

Samuel Lum was no doubt born at Southampton, L. I., and came to Elizabethtown, N. J., after his brother John's death in 1716. He received deed for property in Connecticut Farms, N. J., in 1724, and a letter from his "brother" Matthew in 1728, copies of which follow. In the deed, Samuel Lum is called a weaver of Newark, N. J. Upon this property a direct line of descendants have lived to the present day, the present house standing on the spot of former houses, there having been four built. In the letter, there is nothing but love, the sentiment being expressed over and over again. The sister referred to may have been Samuel's wife. Nothing is known of a brother Matthew, although a Matthew Lum witnessed deed May 7, 1737, recorded Essex Co., N. J., Book A, p. 182, for property on North branch of Rahway River, Orange, given by Thomas Lyon to John Styles, all of Newark, half of 30 acres. It is more likely that this was cousin Matthew who appears to have come to N. J. about that time, as he was in Morristown in 1740. The letter from Matthew to Samuel may have been from Matthew, b. 1672, to Samuel, b. 1670, the latter possibly having come to N. J.

MATTHEW LUM."

Samuel Lum md. Martha Clark, b. Nov. 2, 1701, the dau. of John and Martha (Frazee) Clark and grand dau. of Richard and Elizabeth Clark, and of Joseph Frazee of Rahway, N. J. Mrs. John Clark after her husband's death married Major Joseph Bonnell, b. 1685, d. 1747/8, who in his will remembers his wife's daughter, Martha Lyon, formerly Martha Lum. Martha (Clark) Lum, widow of Samuel Lum, md. 2ndly, Benjamin Lyon, [son of Benjamin and Bethya (Condit) Lyon and grandson of Henry Lyon and Mary (Bateman) Lyon] a widower with five children. This Benjamin Lyon was b. 1694, d. Jan. 7, 1747. He and Martha had other children. In his will, two daughters of his wife, viz., Hannah and Mary Lum are mentioned. This Mary Lum was married at the Morristown church Nov. 18, 1747, to Benjamin Lyon, son of her stepfather by his first wife. They were stepbrother and sister, but no blood relation. John Clark was b. 1665, d 1705. Martha (Frazee) (Clark) Bonnell, d. Aug. 3, 1759, in 81 yr., and Joseph Bonnell d. Mch. 14, 1747/8, in 63 yr., buried at Ct. Farms. When Martha (Clark) (Lum) Lyon died has not been discovered, but it was after her husband, Benjamin Lyon. For further particulars see Lyon Genealogy.

Samuel Lum in his will dated Feb. 8, 1732/3, calls himself Yeoman and is "very sick." He leaves homestead to son John, except 20 acres to daughters Hannah and Mary, sons Samuel and David are to have lands in Hanover Bounds (lands in Chatham, N. J., then in Hanover). The wife Martha is named Extrix. Major Joseph Bonnell and Christopher Wood, Executors in trust. The will was probably drawn by Jonathan Dickinson, pastor of Elizabethtown Church, afterward the first President of Princeton College. The will bears seal with horse's head and was probated Mch. 6, 1732/3. The witnesses were Edward Gillman, Joseph Bonnell, Jr., and Charles Hole. The lands in Hanover Bounds were 160 acres East of Day's brook and North of King's Rd., and 320 acres on Passaic Ave., Chatham, N. J. Acc. to N. Y. Gazette of Nov. 29, 1773, Chatham received its name at a town meeting of Freeholders and principal inhabitants held Nov. 19, 1773, the section being called "Passaic River" and this being too indefinite.

The children of Samuel Lum and Martha (Clark) Lum, his wife, were:

I Hannah, b. Sept. 8, 1724.

No further record is found of her unless she is the same Hannah Lum received in full communion in Westfield Church Feb. 4, 1761. There is little doubt but that this is the same.

24 II John, b. Mch. 20, 1726, d. June 22, 1802.

25 III Samuel, b. Aug. 15, 1727, d. Nov. 9, 1756.

26 IV David, b. Dec. 16, 1729, d. Nov. 17, 1772.

V Mary, b. May 12, 1732.

Mary Lum md. at Morristown, N. J., Nov. 18, 1747, Benjamin Lyon, her stepbrother, the son of Benjamin Lyon and his first wife Mary. Benjamin Lyon was born 1719 and died July 31, 1758. As they lived in Elizabeth, N. J., before and after marriage, we can imagine that they drove up to Morristown in an ox cart or on saddle horses. Benjamin Lyon's will is dated Apl. 11, 1758; names wife Mary and three children, Exrs. wife and brother Samuel and brother-in-law Amos Day; speaks of lands in great swamp which his father gave to him and brothers Moses, Matthew and David. Their children were:

a Mary

b Martha.

c Benjamin, b. 1754, d. Dec. 8, 1803.

Benjamin Lyon 1754-1803 was a Rev. Soldier; md. Phebe Clark Crane, who was b. 1759 and d. May 3, 1815. Both buried at Elizabeth 1st Church Yard. They had 8 ch., 7 of whom are named in Phebe's will dated Dec. 21, 1814, prob. July 3, 1815, in Essex Co. They lived at

LUM GENEALOGY

Lyons Farms. Their dau. Sarah md. William Murphy and had son William Hayes Murphy, who md. Abby Elizabeth Hager and who was father of Gov. Franklin Murphy. Sarah C., wife of Wm. Murphy, d. Apl. 25, 1821, in 32 yr., buried in Elizabethtown.

12 MATTHEW LUM

Matthew Lum was the first assessor at Morristown in 1740, was a carpenter by trade, and elder Mch. 1, 1748, at Morristown Church. He had been connected with the Hanover Church at Whippanong and was reprimanded by the Synod of Suffolk for casting lots on the question of moving the organization to West Hanover (Morristown). He is on the first list of Morristown Church 1742; was in list of Freeholders as late as 1776. He married twice. His first wife was Susanna, who died apparently without children Mch. 23, 1758, in ye 63 yr, of her age, according to stone in 1st Churchyard, Morristown. This would make her twelve years older than her husband, which may be correct. (It is possible that Susanna Lum was step-mother of Matthew, a second wife of his father Matthew.) Matthew married secondly Jemima, the widow Leonard, who was member of 1st Church 1742 at time of installation of Rev. Timothy Johnes according to "Historic Morristown." The Morristown Church record says Matthew Lum d. May 21, 1777, aged 70 yrs. On June 21, 1777, Benjamin Morgan, Esq., a prisoner in Morris County, petitioned to be removed from prison to some private house, and it was ordered that he be removed to the house of widow Jemima Lum and there to remain or within 100 yards under penalty of 200 pounds. Jemima Lum brought a letter to 1st Church July 29, 1759, when her dau. Sarah was baptized. She died over 90 years of age and was buried at Mendham, N. J. Matthew Lum was active in civic and church affairs, as appears from records. His will is dated Jan. 8, 1768, prob. July 2, 1777. He names wife Jemima, only son Matthew, only dau. Sarah, Exrs. wife and Joseph Wood and Capt. Benjamin Halsey; witnesses, Mary King, Silas Howell, Caleb King and Aaron Lindsley. The bill of mortality of Morristown says he died of "Fever." The children of Matthew and Jemima Lum were:

I Sarah, b. June 19, 1759, d. May 14, 1837.

Sarah Lum md. Japhet Byram, Jr., son of Japhet, Sr., and grandson of Captain Ebenezer and Hannah (Haymaed) Byram, both of whom died in 1753, and were buried in Mendham, N. J. Japhet Byram, Sr., married in 1742 Sarah Allen. Japhet, Jr., was a widower, his first wife being Mary McCollum, by whom he had four children. He lived at Mendham and died July 28, 1831, in 78th year. Mary, his first wife, died July 7, 1789, in 34th year. Sarah, his second wife, died May 14, 1837, in 78th year. All were buried at Mendham, N. J. He was a private in Rev. War. Japhet's will without date, probated Feb. 2, 1832, names wife Sarah, and living children; recorded in Morris Co. Japhet Byram, Jr., was descended from John Alden of the Mayflower. The children of Japhet and Sarah (Lum) Byram were:

Silas, b. Oct. 18, 1790, d. Sept. 22, 1840.

Aaron, b. Oct. 5, 1792, d. Mch. 22, 1793.

Mary, b. Jan. 10, 1794.

Lewis, b. Apl. 27, 1797, d. June 25, 1820.

Sarah, b. Mch. 24, 1800.

Rachel, b. July 2, 1803, d. ———, 1890.

27 II Matthew, b. May 31, 1763, d. May 4, 1830.

13 OBADIAH LUM

According to record handed down in family Obadiah was born Mch. 10, 1708, and d. Oct., 1783. He was born in Southampton, L. I., and his name appears there in Vol. I, page 299, Southampton Town records. He received lot 17 in addition to Southampton, the first Tuesday in April, 1727, and May 3, 1727, he had 150 acres in the cedar swamp. Some time later he came to New Jersey, was in Bottle Hill (now Madison, N. J.), on Ridgedale Ave. 1757, was Trustee of Church there and was there May 19, 1753, when he witnessed deed at Madison, then Bottle Hill. He appears to have gone to Rockaway Church in 1758, and on Mch. 1, 1759, purchased 180 acres at Franklin, near Rockaway, from Thomas and Richard Penn. He established a forge at Franklin and was one of the active men in business and Church. The name of his wife has not been learned. He was probably buried at Rockaway. His will is dated Jan. 27, 1779, probated Nov. 3, 1783. He names an only son James, eldest daughter Phebe, two sons of his dau. Hannah, deceased, daughters Sarah, Patience, and Susanna, grandson "Obadiah Hand," Exrs., good friends Abraham Kitchell and Job Allen and son James. In his will which is witnessed by Clizby Cobb, Aaron Marsh and David Baker, he gives son James all lands except part of farm south side of brook, called Den Brook, on his payment to executors of £120 for daughters. Eldest daughter Phebe is to get £80, two sons of Hannah, £50 each, daughter Sarah, £100, bedding, etc., daughter Patience, £85, Susannah, £85, grandson "Obadiah Hand," £20 when 21 yrs. old. The children of Obadiah Lum were these:

- I Obadiah, b. Aug. 26, 1735, d. in infancy.
- II Phebe, b. May 25, 1737, d. Jan. ———, 1788.
Nothing further is known of her, and it is thought that she was unmarried.
- III Sarah, b. Mch. 7, 1742, d. Jan. 26, 1822.
Sarah, md. Mch. 8, 1759, at Morristown, Samuel Kitchell of Hanover, son of John and Keziah (Ball) Kitchell, and grandson of Abraham and Sarah (Bruen) Kitchell and had son Isaac, dau. Betsey, who md. John Chadeayne (son of David) who was born Aug. 29, 1780, at Oyster Bay, L. I., and d. June 25, 1824, and other daughters. The Palladium of Liberty says: widow Sarah Kitchell, d. Jan. 26, 1822, aged 80, at Hanover of Typhus Fever.
- IV Hannah, b. May 8, 1743, d. Oct. 26, 1776.
Hannah md. Oct. 25, 1769, Isaac Prudden and had sons Timothy, Daniel and Isaac. After Hannah's death Isaac Pruden md. 2ndly July 8, 1778, Sarah, dau. of Capt James Keen. After Isaac Prudden's death his widow Sarah married 2ndly, Mch. 26, 1803, Jonathan Hathaway, who died Aug. 26, 1814, aged 77, leaving Sarah a widow. Isaac Prudden and wife Sarah had nine children.
- 28 V James, b. June 7, 1747, d. May 4, 1805.
- 29 VI Daniel, b. Oct. 23, 1749.
- VII Patience, b. Sept. 8, 1751.
Patience married July 8, 1778, Benjamin Woodruff, a widower, whose first wife was Phebe Pierson, (dau. of Timothy), by whom he had sons James, Charles and Phineas Lyman. The children of Benjamin and Patience (Lum) Woodruff were Hannah, Elizabeth, Benjamin, Obadiah Lum, John and Timothy. Benjamin Woodruff was a Rev. soldier and moved from Morristown with his wife and part of his family to Fayette, Seneca Co., N. Y., in 1804. It is not known when and where Patience died. Benjamin d. Oct. 8, 1837, in Washtenaw Co., Mich., and was buried at Ann Arbor, Mich.

VIII Susannah, b. Oct. 175—, last letter in date missing.

Nothing further is known of her, and it is thought that she was unmarried.

(The above records were taken from Bible in family dated subsequently to the above dates, and were probably copied from original entries.)

14—DANIEL LUM

was no doubt born at Southampton, and came to Whippany, N. J., about 1740. He was called Captain; was overseer of poor of Hanover Township in 1749 and 1750. He married twice, 1st Bethiah ———, who d. Nov. 2, 1752, aged 36; buried at Whippany, N. J. It is surmised that she was the dau. of Samuel Wines or Winds of Southold who had dau. Bethiah and owned lands in Whippany according to his will, and some of the sons came to Whippany later. He married 2ndly, Mrs. Mary Cooper, the widow of John Cooper, and dau. of Rev. Jonathan Dickinson and his first wife, Joanna Melyn. She was born Oct. 15, 1722. John Cooper died Feb. 25, 1753, in 39th year and was buried at Conn. Farms, N. J. His will is dated Jan. 13, 1753; names wife Mary, sons William and Caleb Cooper, and dau. Martha Cooper. After the death of Daniel Lum, his widow Mary married Samuel Plum of Newark, upon whose est. letters were granted June 17, 1759, to his father Samuel Plum. Mary Plum in her will dated June 10, 1763, residence, Newark, proved June 1, 1764, leaves her loving daughter Elizabeth Lum 45 pounds, etc., other property to sons William and Caleb Cooper and dau. Martha Burnett and dau. Mary Plum, Exrs. good friend Timothy Whitehead and son-in-law David Burnet. Daniel Lum in his will dated Oct. 6, 1755, prob. Oct. 21, 1755, names brother

Matthew, Exr. and wife Mary, and names six children (all but Dorcas, who evidently had died) all under age, and leaves 10 pounds to child unborn, gives Mary all the household goods and creatures that were hers when he married her and 100 pounds money. Witnesses were Benjamin Howell, Gershom Mott and Obadiah Cook. Appraisers were Daniel Tuttle and Benjamin Howell. Estate was 509 pounds, 19 sh. 2d. Matthew Lum, Exr., in N. Y. Mercury Feb. 23, 1756, advertises Lum's plantation in Hanover 80 acres for sale. Daniel Lum's children by Bethiah were:

- 30 I Anna, b. 1741/, d. Dec. 8, 1779, aged 37.
 II Shuah.
 No further record of Shuah.
 III Sarah, b. 1744, d. July 10, 1809, aged 64.
 Morristown Church record says Sarah was received into church Nov. 4, 1774.
 31 IV Squire, bapt. Sept. 8, 1745, d. Aug. 16, 1776.
 32 V Matthew, bapt. Nov. 8, 1747, d. Mch. 30, 1815.
 VI Dorcas, bapt. May 17, 1749, d. young.

 Dorcas, Eunice, Matthew, Squire and their father were baptised at Whippany Church.
 Eunice married, Apl. 12, 1769, Asher Smith of Parsippany and moved after Rev. War to Bridport, Vt. She had ten children, named Daniel, Caleb, Isaac, Anna, Keturah, Samuel, Squire, Electa, Olive and Salome. Charles T. Payne, Yale grad., born in Illinois, is a great great grandson of Eunice Lum.
 By his 2nd wife, Mary (Dickinson) (Cooper) Lum, Daniel Lum had daughter.
 33 VIII Elizabeth, b. ———, 1755, d. Feb. ———, 1821, aged 66.

15 SAMUEL LUM

He and wife owned the covenant at New Milford, Conn., Church, July 1, 1753. He conveys land in New Milford, Oct. 20, 1787, on west side Candlewood Mountain to Stephen Hine. Their children were baptised at New Milford, Conn., one is mentioned as "a son" believed to be Reuben, and one is a daughter not identified by a name.

Samuel Lum md. Hannah Murry, daughter of Joseph and Hannah Murry, and their children were:

- I Jonathan, bapt. Mch. 31, 1754.

Jonathan married Mary ———, but had no children.

He was in Rev. War, 4th Reg't Militia, Oct. 5-18, 1775, on the Hudson under Gen'l Gates. He and wife Mary made mtge, recorded Book 4, page 494, Montgomery Co., N. 16 JONATHAN LUM, JR.

He was known as Dr. Jonathan Lum and sometimes called Jr. He was in Cap't Joseph Woodruff's Co. of Militia in ye alarm of Aug. 1, 1757, for the relief of Ft. William Henry, served 18 days, (Reg't served two months and 23 days at New York), was moderator of School Com. Nov. 4, 1805, and at other times. He married Mabel Bennett of Newtown, Conn. They lived at Derby, Conn. Letters of adm. were granted in Feb., 1820, to Bennett Lum on Estate of Jonathan Lum, dec'd. His widow d. Nov., 1830, aged 82; both buried at Seymour, Conn. The children of Jonathan and Mabel (Bennett) Lum were:

38 I John ———, d. Apl. 3, 1830.

II Sarah, b. ———, 1788, d. June 14/15, 1868.

She m. Oct. 21, 1806, Alfred Hull, res. Seymour, Conn.

See Hull Genealogy for family.

39 III Bennett, b. ———, 1793, d. Apl. 3, 1863.

IV Daniel.

Nothing more is known of him except that he gets share of father's estate Jan. 14, 1822, $400.44.

17 ANDREW LUM

He was at New Milford, Conn., July 1, 1766, when he conveys land there to John Eagleston; was at Williamstown at date of deed May 12, 1771, to Ephraim Richmond for lands at New Milford, Conn. He was in Rev. War; entered service July 2, 1775, in Capt. Lemuel Stewart's Co.; credited with 50 days billeting paid on a warrant from Major Gen. Schuyler at Albany, N. Y., Jan. 27, 1776. Pittsfield, Mass., record of deeds, Book 4, page 445, gives sale dated July 5, 1766, by Ephraim Seeley to Andrew Lum of New Milford of 100 acres in Williamstown, Mass.; bought other property there in 1768, 1771, and sold first purchase Oct. 31, 1771. Adams, Mass., records deed from Andrew Lum and Hannah his wife dated Mch. 13, 1789. Jefferson Co., N. Y., Surrogate writes, names of Andrew and Samuel Lum appear in deeds there, but nothing further, except there is mention of inventory in Estate of Andrew Lum, dated Feb. 1810, Samuel Lum, admr.; other records burnt up in Court House fire of 1830. Federal Census of 1790 gives Andrew Lum in Berkshire Co., Mass., with 2 sons under 16 and 4 females incl. head of family. Federal Census of 1790 gives a Samuel Lum at Gracuttown in Middlesex Co., Mass., one female in family, no children mentioned. This was probably his wife. This Samuel was probably a son of Andrew. City Clerk of Rutland, Vt., writes that in Book I of R. E. records, pages 48 & 49, is deed dated Feb. 7, 1780, from Gershom Beach to Andrew Lum of Williamstown, Mass., for 230 A, and under same date Andrew Lum, Yeoman, deeds same property to Ichabod Tuttle. Andrew Lum lived at Rutland, Vt., where his dau. Hannah was born in 1775 and at Stamford, Vt., in 1791, where his son Augustus was born. He died in 1810 in Jefferson Co., N. Y., and it is believed his wife was Hannah Walker, as Walker family lived in Rutland, Vt., after the French and Indian Wars, and the surnames of grandchildren of Andrew Lum, unusual in the Lum family, are found in the Walker family, as will be seen from the Walker Genealogy. Hannah, d. Apl. 19, 1835, Aet. 83 yrs. 11 mos., and was buried in Griswold Cemetery, Petersburg, Rensaellaer Co., N. Y. We will say, therefore, that Andrew Lum's wife was most probably Hannah Walker, and their children appear to have been:

I Samuel.

Samuel, the admr. of estate of Andrew Lum, is thought to be his son. He had wife Susannah and in Federal Census of 1810 was of Watertown, Jefferson Co., N. Y., with 2 males, 16-25 yrs., 3 females, 16-25 yrs., 1 female, 25-45, 1 female over 45. In Fed. Census of 1790 there was a Samuel Lum and wife at Dracut-town, Mass., thought to be this one.

40 II Sylvanus, b. ———, 1773, d. ———, 1821.

41 III Hannah, b. Jan. 7, 1775.

42 IV Augustus, b. Nov. 16, 1791, d. July 6, 1869.

V John.

In Federal Census of 1810 there is a John Lum of Norway, Herkimer Co., N. Y., with 2 males under 10 yrs., 1 male, 26-45, 1 female under 10, 1 female, 10-16, 1 female, 26-45 yrs. This John is believed to be a son of Andrew.

18 LEMUEL LUM

resided at Great Hill, near Derby, Conn. He enlisted in Col. Nathan Whiting's Co. of 2nd Conn. Reg't, Mch. 26, 1760, discharged Nov. 12, 1760; enlisted again Apl. 14, 1761, but did not join his Co. He was buried at Great Hill Cemetery. He married Hannah Jones and had children:

I Mark, ———, d. young.

43 II Gypson, ———, d. Jan. 1838.

19 JOHN LUM

John Lum md. Oct. 18, 1768, or 9 Frelove Lines or Lynus, so called, dau. of Nathaniel (of N. Y. City and Stratford and Litchfield, Conn.), of Litchfield, Conn. After the death of John Lum, the widow Frelove Lines Lum md. 2ndly July 18, 1776, Josiah Nettleton, a widower, whose first wife was Agnes Gunn, who died Jan. 23, 1774, leaving two children. By the second wife Josiah Nettleton had five children, one of whom Frelove, bapt. St. James, Derby, Conn., Aug., 1779, md. Theophilus Miles. John Lum and wife had one child:

44 I John, b. Mch. 29, 1770/1, d. ———, 1799.

20 HENRY LUM

The Federal Census of 1790 gives Henry Lum in Litchfield Co., Conn., believed to be this one, with 2 males over 16 and three females incl. heads of family. Obedience, wife of Henry Lum, purchased real estate in Woodbury, Conn., Mch. 14, 1781. Henry md. Obedience Chatfield, dau. of Lieut. John Chatfield and his wife Obedience Smith, and George Lum of Washington, Conn., would appear to be his son. George was md. to Lucinda Adams by Rev. D. N. Brinsmade. Washington was incorporated Jan. 7, 1779, taken from Towns of Woodbury, Kent, New Preston, Litchfield and New Milford. George Lum d. 1796 and on Feb. 2, 1796, letters of adm. were granted to Peter Sherman. No heirs are mentioned.

A Sarah Lum born in Southbury Oct. 10, 1780, is thought to be a dau. of Henry.

A Henry Lum, believed to be son of Henry, No. 20, was md. June 4, 1801, to Patience Wakelee at South Britain and the record says "both of Southbury." They had son Jacob, b. 1808.

Jerusha and Christopher Lum are believed to be children of Henry and Obedience (Chatfield) Lum.

21 JONATHAN LUM

This Jonathan is often called the 3rd, bapt. St. James, Derby, Dec. 25, 1750. He was one of the first Deacons of Great Hill, Cong. Church; on building committee for new school Nov. 23, 1784, and on School Com. Oct. 18, 1803. He md. 1st Sarah Andrews or Sarah Fairchild and had son Jonathan. He md. 2ndly Apl. 24, 1775, Lydia Pritchard, who was born Aug. 11, 1757, the dau. of James and Abigail (Hickox) Pritchard of Oxford, Conn. He d. at Oxford, Conn., and he and wife Lydia were buried at Squantook, Eastern shore of Housatonic. The only child of Jonathan and Sarah was:

- 45 I Jonathan, b. Jan. 16, 1773, d. Feb. 2, 1833.
The children of Jonathan and Lydia (Pritchard) Lum were:
- 46 II Betsey, b. ———, 1777, d. Aug. ———, 1862.
- 47 III David, b. June ———, 1778, d. June 23, 1815.
- 48 IV Sheldon, b. Dec. 17, 1779, d. Mch. 23, 1841.

- 49 V William, b. ———, 1781, d. Oct. 27, 1820.
 50 VI Henry, b. ———, 1783, d. May 26, 1859.
 VII Abel, b. ———, 1785.

Abel Lum is said to have been drowned in Lake Erie, and to have had one or two children, and to have resided at Hartwick, Otsego Co., N. Y. There was an Ann Lum, an old lady, who d. in Otsego Co., N. Y. Feb. 24, 1879. Her niece Julia Hewes of German Flats, Herkimer Co., was admr. of estate. She was the dau. of Elihu Thornton, brother of Ann Lum. Charles Thornton d. Aug. 20, 1828, aged 78 yrs. 4 mos. and 20 days. His wife's name was Mercy. This Charles Thornton had dau. Ann Lum and son Elihu Thornton according to Ct. Records in Otsego Co., N. Y. Geo. A. Bailey, undertaker at Fly Creek, Otsego Co., N. Y., wrote Dec. 5, 1914, that Ann Thornton Lum was buried in cemetery about 2 miles from Fly Creek with the Thornton family, but there is no stone nor marker. Fanny H. (Mrs. Charles) Rosbach, 416 N. Prospect St., Herkimer, N. Y., is dau. of Julia Hewes, dec'd. She has the Ann Thornton Bible, but it contains no Lum record. She says Ann had also brother Charles. It looks as if Abel Lum md. Ann Thornton, but if they had children, they died young.

- 51 VIII Austin, b. June 5, 1787, d. June 16, 1829.
 52 IX Sherman, b. ———, 1789, d. about 1860.
 53 X Hepsey, b. ———, 1790, d. June 7, 1824.
 54 XI Lucy, b. July 16, 1792, d. Jan. 3, 1853.
 55 XII Olive, b. Jan. 21, 1797, d. Apl. 11, 1885.

22 ADAM LUM

Adam Lum was bapt. Feb. 17, 1754, at St. James Church, Derby, Conn. He was Capt. in 13 Reg't, 4 Brigade, Conn. Militia, 1789. He was an iron worker; lived some years at Seymour, Conn.; was prominent in Masonic Order at Woodbury. As resident of Derby, Conn., he purchased real estate in parish of Southbury, town of Woodbury, Conn., in 1780. 24 JOHN LUM lived at Conn. Farms, N. J. He was married twice, first to Elizabeth Meeker, dau. of Stephen and Mary Meeker of Conn. Farms, who was the mother of his children. She was born Feb. 10, 1734, and died Apl. 1, 1789. His second wife was also Elizabeth, a widow, and apparently a widow Ward, as in Book K, page 582, of Deeds of Essex Co., N. J., is record of deed dated Oct. 2, 1795, from Samuel Ward and wife to Elizabeth Lum "his mother" for land in Newark whereon Martin Richards now lives, and Elizabeth Lum conveys same property to Rachel Richards, her "granddaughter." Rachel was the wife of Martin Richards and died in 1850 aged 83. John Lum's will was dated June 1, 1802, prob. Mch. 22, 1806, names wife Elizabeth, son John Clark, and son Stephen, daughters Mary Harrison and Elizabeth Osborne, grandson Moses Lum; Exrs. wife and Capt. Matthias Potter and son John C.; wits. Caleb Halstead, Hope Carpenter and Edward Carpenter. The children of John and Elizabeth (Meeker) Lum were:

- 69 I Stephen, b. Jan. 26, 1754, d. ———, 1806.
- 70 II Mary, b. Aug. 9, 1756, d. Mch. 3, 1825.

md. Daniel Osborne, who d. May 20, 1801, in 43rd year leaving 5 children.
- VI Susannah Marsh, b. Dec. 13, 1771.
Nothing further is known about her.

25 SAMUEL LUM

was born at Connecticut Farms, inherited lands in "Hanover Bounds" (Chatham, N. J.). Chatham, according to New York Gazette of Nov. 29, 1773, received its name at a town meeting of Freeholders and principal inhabitants held Nov. 19, 1773, the section being called "Passaic River" and this being too indefinite. Just when Samuel Lum moved up to Chatham is not known, but on Feb. 10, 1756, he applied to Morris Co. Court for license to keep public house in "Hanover," which then took in Chatham, which license was granted, and his sureties were John Roberts and Matthew Lum. On Dec. 3, 1756, his widow Martha applied for license which was granted, her sureties being Daniel and Thomas Day. On Dec. 20, 1757, Joseph Day applied for license, his sureties being Daniel Day and David Lum. Samuel Lum married Martha Day, daughter of Joseph and Hannah (Sargeant) Day. Samuel Lum's will, dated Hanover Oct. 7, 1756, probated Nov. 17, 1756, names wife Martha and gives her 55 lbs., the "large bay mare which I used to ride" with side saddle and best bridle, sons Samuel and Israel, daus. Nancy and Martha, all under lawful age; Exrs. brothers John and David Lum, wife Martha and Thomas Day. Samuel Lum was buried in Madison, N. J., and stone stands near S/E cor. of Cemetery.

After the death of Samuel Lum, Martha, the widow, married Stephen Howell, son of Christopher and Joanna Howell of Long Island. They had three sons Luther, Calvin and David Howell and possibly other children. Stephen Howell died intestate in Morris Co., N. J., in 1777 and letters of administration were granted to his widow Martha Howell. Luther Howell married Feb. 24, 1783, Miss Mary Young of Whippany, as per church record. Luther Howell died in 1792 leaving children: Stephen Elias, Wickliffe, Nancy, Lewis and Luther Y. His widow Mary on Nov. 29, 1798, married Stephen Genung as his second wife and had children Adelia, Wickliffe Howell, Drucilla Y. and Amza Wesley. Mary (Young) (Howell) Genung was b. Feb. 10, 1761, and died a widow Dec. 14, 1839. Calvin Howell, b. Nov. 18, 1766, d. Mch. 30, 1850, married Jan. 23, 1796, Mary Sayre, dau. of Deacon Ephraim and Hannah (Miller) Sayre of Bottle Hill (Madison) N. J. They had six children according to Orphans' Court records at Morristown. David Howell, b. Dec. 22, 1773, d. Jan. 19, 1844, married in 1795 Sally Burnet, dau. of Josiah and Hannah (Ball) Burnet. She died Apl. 14, 1841, aet 66 yrs. and 4 mos. They had several children as shown by Orphans' Ct. records of Morris Co., N. J. After death of Stephen Howell in 1777, the widow Martha married John Carnes of Mendham, a widower with large family, as her third husband. His will dated Jan. 8, 1801, probated May 2, 1801, names wife Martha and children and grandchildren.

The children of Samuel and Martha (Day) Lum were:

I Nancy.

Nancy Lum md. Mch. 20, 1763, Aaron Marsh of Westfield, N. J. They were received into Morris-town church on confession Nov. 18, 1784, when the following children were baptized there:

Samuel Marsh, b. May 7, 1768.

Israel Marsh, b. Feb. 11, 1771.

Anne Marsh, b. May 8, 1780.

David Marsh, b. Dec. 18, 1782.

Aaron Marsh served in Capt. Josiah Hall's Co. from Morris County in Rev. War. This Marsh family left Morristown and we find in Federal Census of 1790 in Morgan District, Wilkes Co., N. C., 16th Co. Aaron Marsh, wife, and three sons under 16 and three daughters, no doubt the same Aaron Marsh.

72 II Samuel.

III Martha.

Nothing more is known of Martha.

73 IV Israel, b. 1756, d. Oct. 4, 1837.

26 DAVID LUM

was born at Conn. Farms and went up to Chatham and is in list of Freeholders in Morris Co. in 1752. He was an appraiser with Caleb Horton Oct. 15, 1748, of Est. of Jonah Robinson. He joined with Joseph Foster Apl. 19, 1765, on bond to Thomas Day to secure obligation 200 lbs. dated Apl. 26, 1761, of Joseph Foster to Executors of ——— Van Horn, late of Bergen Co., N. J., and one of 120 lbs. to George DeMott of Bergen Co. in one year. Joseph Foster and Mary his wife of Morris Township conveyed property Oct. 28, 1765, situated on Passaic River to Benjamin Bonnell. Joseph Foster died intestate and letters of administration were granted Mch. 18, 1786, at Trenton to Rensellor Foster. The only other reference to Rensellor Foster is in a mortgage dated Mch. 23, 1774, to Jacob Ford on property in Hanover about half a mile southerly from Robert Young's plantation. A descendant of David Lum stated many years ago that Phebe the daughter of David Lum married a Foster. On Nov. 28, 1800, a Lum Foster was admitted a member of the Madison, N. J., Church and became an elder in 1804. This Lum Foster md. June 20,

1804, Phebe Rhodes of Chester, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Lemuel Fordham and recorded at Morristown. Phebe Rhodes was dau. of ——— Rhodes and Anna (——) Rhodes, which latter married 2ndly Jan. 19, 1796, John Ayres, a widower with four daughters. John Ayres died Feb. 20, 1807, at Flanders. Lum Foster died in Sussex or Warren County, N. J., leaving widow Phebe who died in 1848 at Newton, N. J., and children, Moses Ayres, David Lum, Sarah, Stephen, William R., Aaron, Ann and Charles. The late Robert E. Foster who died at Newton July 6, 1912, was a son of David Lum Foster. What Foster, Phebe, the daughter of David Lum, married has not been learned, but Hannah, the dau. of David Lum, married a Foster, and after his death, she married Gabriel Baldwin, a widower with children. It may be that both Phebe and Hannah Lum married Fosters. It is reasonably sure that Lum Foster was the son of one of them, and also a Bern B. Foster who married a Baldwin, daughter of Samuel Baldwin of Cheapside, Essex Co., he being named presumably for Dr. Bern Budd, a relative. A Miss Phebe R. Foster joined Madison Church in 1792 from Ct. Farms. She and three Potters were witnesses in a charge of theft vs. William a negro Jan. 23, 1820. After exhaustive searching, the given names of Fosters that married these Lum girls have not been discovered. Lum Foster's last attendance at Session at Madison Church was Aug. 24, 1805. In 1808 he was living in Independence, Warren Co., N. J., and was a subscriber to the "Christian Remembrancer," published by John Austin Crane of Newark. He also lived at Middleville in Sussex Co. and other places. He taught in singing schools, going from place to place, and is said to have had red hair. David Lum married Nov. 10, 1751, Phebe Bower or Bowers, who was born Apl. 7, 1731, and died Jan. 15, 1792. Letters of administration on Estate of David Lum, dec'd, were granted Nov. 30, 1772, to John Lum and Stephen Day, the widow Phebe renouncing the right. The children of David and Phebe (Bower) Lum were:

- I Phebe, b. Sept. 17, 1752.
- II Moses, b. Apl. 1, 1754, d. ———, 1777/8.
- III Hannah, b. Apl. 22, 1756.
- IV Mary, b. May 26, 1758, d. Jan. 4, 1772.

- V Martha, b. Oct. 4, 1760, d. Sept. 25, 1778.
- VI Nancy, b. July 10, 1763, d. Aug. 31, 1778.
- VII David, b. Aug. 11, 1765, d. July 11, 1768.
- 75 VIII David, b. Feb. 28, 1770, d. Feb. 2, 1820.
- IX Silas, b. June 4, 1772, d. Sept. —, 1775.

27 MATTHEW LUM

Matthew Lum lived in Morristown and later on Water St. (Brookside) towards Mendham, was a carpenter by trade, a soldier of the Rev., a private, and later, Oct. 16, 1798, first Lieut. of Company of Militia. He married, Dec. 24, 1784, Hannah Ludlow, dau. of Gilbert and Abigail Ludlow, of Mendham, N. J. Gilbert Ludlow died Nov. 11, 1801, Aet. 74. His first wife was Abigail, who died Feb. 12, 1762, Aet. 24. His second wife, Abigail, d. Feb. 3, 1815, Aet. 81. Hannah was daughter of 2nd wife, and was baptized at Morristown Church, Oct. 30, 1763. She joined the church Dec. 16, 1795. Matthew and wife ack'd deeds in Morris Co., N. J., as late as June 30, 1806, (Palladium of Liberty, date of Dec. 31, 1819, adv. letter in P. O. for Abigail Lum), and about that time went to Ogdensburg, N. Y., where they lived some years, but later lived in Geneva, N. Y., where they died and are buried. Hannah, the wife, died Feb. 26, 1813. The first three children and fifth were born and baptized at Morristown, N. J., on wife's account, Nov. 14, 1797. The children of Matthew and Hannah (Ludlow) Lum were:

71 JOHN CLARK LUM

John Clark Lum was in Rev. War and Capt. N. J. Militia, Essex Co., June 4, 1803. He was a man of considerable prominence. He lived a short time at Madison, N. J., for his health, and received letter of dismissal from church there Aug. 21, 1806. He owned considerable property and was acquainted with all the prominent people of his day, and was a warm friend of Sheppard Kollock who published the New Jersey Journal first at Chatham and later at Elizabeth, N. J. The first Vol. and first number is dated at Chatham, Feb. 16, 1779, and was published there to escape the raids of British Soldiers at Elizabeth, N. J. John Clark Lum md. Ruth Baker, (dau. of Ephraim and Jane (Osborne) Baker), who was born Dec. 27, 1762, and died Jan. 31, 1831. Both were buried at Ct. Farms, N. J. The Ephraim Baker family mostly went to Ohio, as may be learned from deed in Book 2, page 190 of Essex Co., N. J., dated Oct. 23, 1809. The will of John Clark Lum was prob. in Essex Co. Aug 16, 1838, and witness James W. Wade testifies that the testator died more than "ten days ago." He names son John C. Lum, Exr., son David B. Lum, dau. Mary Allen, dau. Sarah Crane, dau. "Elizabeth" M. Crane. Aaron Davis, son-in-law, grandchildren Joseph Davis, Almyra Davis, and Rosy Davis, grandson Albert C. Townley, and grand-dau. Elizabeth Williams, dau. of Samuel Wil- liams; has lands in Ohio, township of Athens. The children of John and Ruth (Baker) Lum were:

- 149 I Sarah, b. Oct. 21, 1781, d. Sept. 5, 1868.
 - 150 II Prudence, b. Feb. 15, 1784, d. Dec. 23, 1804.
 - 151 III Electa, b. Sept. 12, 1786, d. July 11, 1818.
 - 152 IV Mary, b. Apl. 2, 1789.
 - 153 V Jane, b. Sept. 8, 1791, d. Nov 8, 1815.

md. Stephen Crane and died a widow without children.

72 SAMUEL LUM

Samuel Lum was in Rev. War; private in Morris Co., N. J. According to Hanover Church records he married June 7, 1772, Dorcas Riggs, the dau. of Timothy, the son of Samuel, son of Edward, son of Edward, son of Edward. She was baptized Feb. 16, 1755. Samuel Lum and wife convey property in Chatham to brother Israel Lum by deed dated Mch. 27, 1786, proved by affidavit of William Day, witness, Feb. 17, 1802. Samuel and wife disappear from all N. J. records after 1786, but in Federal Census of 1790 we find in Morgan Dis't 11th Co. in Rutherford Co., N. C., a Samuel Lum with two sons under 16 yrs., and four daughters. Timothy Riggs secured grant to lands in Lincoln Co., N. C., formerly part of Rutherford, N. C., in 1755, and he and all his large family went there from Morris Co. later. As Samuel Lum's sister Nancy Marsh and husband went to N. C. it is natural to think the Samuel Lum above is identified. It is not known when or where Samuel Lum died, but it is thought the following boys were his children, though it is questioned by descendants of William.

- 157 I William, ———, d. ———, 1801.
- II Jesse.

All that is known of Jesse is traditional.

Descendants of William say that after William's death Jesse took charge of the children for a time, but later Uncle Billy Foster took the boys as well as Mary, the girl.

Mrs. L. Agnes Boyd says that Jesse md. Levicie ——— "Aunt Vicy" and went to Texas, and that possibly Hannah Bowsden was the mother of Hester Foster, William's wife, md. the second time to ——— Bowsden. Some descendants say that the mother of William Lum was Hannah ———, who md. the 2nd time a Mr. Bowsden, who got all her property, etc.

III Israel D., b. ———, 1778/9, d. Sept. 15, 1815.

All that is known of Israel D. is from a stone in Newark First Church yard inscribed "To the memory of Israel D. Lum who departed this life Sept. 15, 1815, in 37th yr. of his life in full assurance of a blissful immortality, erected by his afflicted widow." In Newark Directory of 1839 is a widow Hetty Lum, 30 Bank St., believed to be the widow of Israel D. Lum. Probably Israel D. went to N. C. and came back to learn trade and stayed in N. J. and married here. There can be no doubt that above Israel Lum is identified as the son of Samuel, and named for Samuel's brother Israel. It is possible Israel D. remained in Jersey with relatives. The "D" in name is no doubt for Day, a family name.

73 ISRAEL LUM

Israel Lum, according to his Pension Application in Bureau at Washington, D. C., made July 31, 1832, was born in Hanover Township in 1756. Hanover at the time of birth included what is north of the old Morris Turnpike, Chatham, N. J. He stated he was in battles of Monmouth, Elizabethtown, The Farms and Springfield, and served two terms in all. He was a farmer, and he may possibly have had some other trade. He was appointed a Justice of the Court of Common Pleas of Morris Co., in Dec., 1804, by Gov. Bloomfield. He asked to join the Bottle Hill Church Nov. 28, 1806, and was received Feb. 25, 1807, in communion with that church and elected an elder Apl. 15, 1808. In 1823 when new present church building was erected in Bottle Hill which was called the First Presbyterian Church of Chatham, he with other residents of the eastern section started a church organization there, known, (and still the corporate name), as the Village Church in Chatham. Israel Lum's name is the first on Roll of Chatham Church Oct. 20, 1823. As no wife is mentioned, it is quite certain that he had no wife living at the time. The last record of his wife Patience is in a mortgage at Morristown acknowledged May 15, 1809. The pension of Israel Lum above referred to was granted Mch. 21, 1834, aet. 78, living at time at Chatham. Israel Lum married first his cousin Betsey Day, dau. of Paul and Elizabeth (Thompson) Day and grand-dau. of Joseph and Hannah (Sargeant) Day. Elizabeth Thompson was dau. of Moses and Abigail (——) Thompson. Betsey, the wife of Israel died leaving one child, and he married 2ndly, at Morristown Church Feb. 14, 1785, Patience Pierson, b. Nov. 24, 1758, the dau. of Benjamin Pierson 1736-1794, and his wife Phebe Raynor, md. Nov. 3, 1756. This Benjamin Pierson was the son of Benjamin Pierson 1701-1783, and his wife Patience Coe. The Session records of the Chatham Presbyterian Church at meeting held Nov. 16, 1837, refer to the death of Elder Israel Lum Oct. 4, 1837, aet. 82, evidently 82nd yr. of his age.

The will of Israel Lum is dated Sept. 30, 1830. He gives son Stephen half of a lot he bought of Dr. Peter Smith. Daus. Elizabeth (Eliza) and Nancy household goods, and son Samuel a house to be built (this was the Paul Lum house, on Washington Ave., lately owned by William MacCready, and was built by Harvey M. Lum, the son of Samuel); Executors, friends Jothan Potter and Daniel S. Clark. A codicil dated Sept. 25, 1837, says Elizabeth having died, he gives her share to grand-dau. Jane, the dau. of Samuel. Will, filed Mch. 29, 1838, Abraham Brittin was appointed Admr. C. T. A. Inv. foots up $307.47½; appraisers, David O. Day and Albert DeHart, and it is dated Mch. 30, 1838.

The child of Israel Lum and Betsey Day, his wife was:

md. Charlotte Bonnell, b. 1797, d. June 2, 1826, the |

dau. of Enos and Rachel (Ball) Bonnell. They had no children. She was buried at Madison, N. J. This "R" probably stands for Raynor and "Paul" comes from Paul Pierson, (bro. of Patience) who died July 31, 1777, aet. 8 yrs. The Palladium of Liberty of Sept. 21, 1820, says: "On Aug. 30 last, near Augusta, Ga., Mr. Paul Lum, aet. 28 of a dropsy. He was son of Israel Lum, Esq., and son-in-law of Mr. Enos Bonnell, all of Chatham."

- 162 VI Israel, b. Dec. 24, 1795, d. May 26, 1827.
 163 VII Nancy, b. Jan. 11, 1801, d. July 10, 1888.

74 MOSES LUM

Moses Lum lived in the farm property now owned by Frank M. Budd, Chatham, N. J., which was quite likely the property of his father David, inherited from his father Samuel, as per his will. He married Joanna Day, dau. of Stephen and Damaris (Foster) Day. Damaris Foster was dau. of Nathan, who died in Essex Co. intestate in 1737, and his wife Mary Lyon (see account of estate of Nathan Foster and will of Joseph Foster, 1742). Mary Lyon was dau. of Joseph Lyon and his first wife, Mary Pierson. Joseph Lyon d. 1726, and he was son of Henry and Elizabeth (Bateman) Lyon. Nathan Foster lived at Lyons Farms, and he was son of Joseph Foster of Long Island. Moses Lum died in 1778, and his widow Joanna, married Ichabod Ward. After she died Ichabod Ward married 2ndly, Esther, widow of John Mills Frost, and daughter of Josiah Broadwell. Esther died April 29, 1835, aet. 81. The will of Moses Lum is dated Oct. 18, 1777, and probated Feb. 6, 1778. He names sisters Phebe and Hannah, brother David, daughter Mary and wife Joanna, Exrs., father-in-law Stephen Day, and Uncle John Lum. Witnesses were Nathaniel Day, Mary Canfield and Benjamin Bonnell. The only child of Moses and Joanna (Day) Lum was:

- 164 I Mary, b. Dec. 11, 1773, d. Sept. 29, 1810.

75 DAVID LUM

md. Jan. 1, 1792, Charity Baker who was born Feb. 15, 1774, and died May 2, 1839. He lived at Hanover (possibly Chatham) N. J., at date of deed, May 4, 1802; was Ensign N. J. Militia, July 27, 1799, Capt. Apl. 2, 1803. The children of David and Charity (Baker) Lum were:

157 WILLIAM LUM

It is said by descendants of this William Lum that he went from one of the Carolinas to Mississippi, and that he and his wife died there in 1801 in the same month, and that William's mother was Hannah ——— who, after the death of Samuel Lum, his father, md. again a Mr. ——— Bowsden of Natchez, Miss., and that the Bowsdens separated, and he got her property and md. again. Descendants also say that Hannah (———) (Lum) Bowsden was the mother of William and Jesse; but if this William was the son of Samuel, Hannah could not have been his mother, so it is concluded she was a step-mother of William. There was a William Foster in Morgan District, N. C., in 1790, with a large family. Jesse was a common name in the Riggs family. The Federal Census of 1790 gives Jesse Riggs, Newbern District, Carteret Co., N. C., with four in family, and William Foster, Morgan Dist., 13th Co., Rutherford Co., with two adults, one male under 16, and four females, including head of family.

Mrs. Maxwell Smith, descendant of William Lum, says she has record that Hannah Bowsden, grandmother of Samuel Lum (son of William) died Aug. 14, 1803. Mrs. L. Agnes Boyd, another descendant, says that William had an older brother Jesse, and their mother married a Mr. Bowsden at or near Natchez, Miss.; says her mother told her that Hannah was the mother of William and Jesse, and that after her husband's death, md. a Mr. Vowsden or Bowsden. Assuming that above William was the son of Samuel and Dorcas (Riggs) Lum, he is entered in this relation, even though he must have married young, say at 16 or 17 yrs. He md. Hester Foster (called Nancy), b. July 11, 1771, dau. of Isaac and Rachel (Gibson) Foster. Rachel was dau. of Gideon and Mary (O'Connell) Gibson. The children of William and Hester (Foster) Lum were:

555 MICHAEL LUM

A nuncupative will of Michael Lums (so spelled, but thought to be intended for Lum) dated Jan. 4, 1639, in Virginia, leaves "all his little property to friend ——— Fenwick, and he regrets it is so little in regard of his care and charge in his sickness." It seems most likely that he came with Leonard Calvert, brother of Cecil and son of George (Lord Baltimore), who took possession of a place and called it St. Mary's, May 27, 1634. When first discovered the place was called St. George's. Michael Lum probably came a young man with the cavaliers. He was called a planter. The vessel they came in was "The Ark and the Dove," and the emigrants were cavaliers and their servants, mostly from Yorkshire, Eng. Though the Calverts were Catholics, the majority of these settlers were Protestants. Cuthbert Fenwick was granted letters and made executor, and gave bond for 1000 weight of tobacco. Inventory made Jan. 27, 1639, amounted to 1860 weight of tobacco and covered clothes, bedtick, sheets, corn, a dog, and debt owing by the Governor for keeping the cattle, and executor was discharged May 7, 1640, with 109 weight of tobacco "for his paines."

597 GRACE LUM

In Cecil Co., Maryland, in Book J. S., No. 24 of Deeds, page 33, is record of bill of sale under date of June 8, 1826, given by Empson Anderson to Grace Lum, all of Cecil Co., on personal property for which Grace Lum pays $80, which property is now in his possession.

598 ARMSTED LUM

He probably belonged to the Maryland Branch of the family. He went from somewhere to Loraine Co., Ohio, and lived at Loraine, formerly called Black River. He was married Jan. 14, 1841, by Heman Birch, J. P., to Emeline Griffith. His will probated Oct. 20, 1859, leaves all to his widow. He was known as Captain Lum, and was likely a Captain on Lake Erie. He had one daughter who married Edward T. Crane and was living a widow in Chicago, Ill., in 1914. Mr. Lum's daughter was:

- I Emma.

599 THOMAS LUM

He lived at Paterson, N. J., and came from Yorkshire, Eng. He owned Real Estate in Paterson and in England. His will is dated Dec. 19, 1857, and probated Mch. 13, 1860, in Passaic Co., N. J. He stated that he was formerly of Barkishland, Yorkshire, Eng., presently a citizen of the U. S. A. He gives his trade as that of spindle grinder and names wife Jane and divides his property, including his inherited property in England, into three parts, giving wife one-third, and use of two-thirds during her life, and on her death, the two-thirds to go to his son William Shaw and his brother William or the survivor, both of Barkishland, Yorkshire Co., Eng.

A Thomas Lum, son of James and Tabitha Lum, farmer, was born Mch. 27, bapt. May 2, 1800, at Barwick in Elmet, Yorkshire, Eng., who had brother William, b. Oct. 26, bapt. Nov. 2, 1807. These may be the same people. The child of Thomas and Jane Lum was:

I William Shaw.

600 DESIRE LUM

She md. Jan. 15, 1767, John Dooner of Norwich, Conn. John Dooner was born at Norwich, Conn., Feb. 27, 1744, and died at Shaftsbury, Vt., Mch. 12, 1819. Desire was born in 1744, and died Dec. 25, 1800, and was buried at Shaftsbury, Vt. In the Dooner genealogy it is stated that she was of Groton, Ct., and there are given the names of eight children born at Groton or Stonington, and three at Shaftsbury, Vt., whither the family moved in 1782. No other records of Desire Lum can be found in Conn., and it is thought she came from Long Island and belonged to some branch of the Southampton Lums.

601 ——— LUM md. Ann Pickard, a widow. Essex (Mass.) Institute Historical Collection, Vol. 23, and page 135, says, "the mother of John Pickard was widow Ann Lum who died at Rowley, Mass., Mch. 19, 1661/2, leaving estate valued at £49, 2 sh., 6d., and daughters Judith and Susannah, which latter was administratrix of estate." John Pickard declared in court that he neither expected or desired any part of the estate. (He was a rich man, according to the numerous deeds in Essex Co., Mass.). A John Pickard died at Barwick in Elmet Yorkshire, Eng., Apl. 5, 1640, may have been the first husband of above Ann and the father of above John Pickard. Rowley town records of June 19, 1662, say Judith Lum paid 1 sh., 7d., for town charges. Yorkshire, Eng., Parish records give numerous Lums, among them a Judith and Susannah and many Pickards. John Pickard, the son of Ann Lum by her first husband, md. at Rowley, Mass., Aug. 29, 1644, Jane Crosby and had eight children. He died at Rowley, Sept. 24, 1683. He was called John Pickard, Sr., to distinguish him from his son John, b. Jan. 1, 1653. John Pickard, Sr., was selectman Jan. 10, 1669. He was a carpenter. His wife, Jane Crosby, was the widow of Constance Crosby. Rowley, Mass., was settled by about 30 families from Rowley, a place about seven miles west of Birmingham, in Staffordshire, Eng., who came with their pastor, Rev. Rogers.

The children of ——— Lum and Ann ——— were:

- 602 I Judith.
II Susannah, died at Woodbridge, N. J., Jan. 16, 1669.

602 JUDITH LUM

She md. at Rowley, Mass., May 26, 1663, Joshua Bradley. They had children there, but moved to Woodbridge, N. J., about 1666. The records mention him often, beginning in 1669, when he stoutly protested against a new town order for election of officers of Township Court as illegal. He received lot of 171 acres in 1670. He was marshall or sergeant of court in 1682/5. His original lot was on Main St., just west of Samuel Dennis' lot. On May 8, 1717, he drew additional lot of 8 acres by No. 34 from grab bag. Judith, the wife of Joshua Bradley, died Dec. 7, 1682, at Woodbridge. The children of Joshua and Judith Lum Bradley were so far as known:

- I Martha Bradley, b. Feb. 29, 1664, at Rowley, Mass.
II Judith Bradley, b. Feb. 17, 1667, at Woodbridge, N. J.
III Joshua Bradley, died Apl. 18, 1669, at Woodbridge, N. J.
IV Joanna Bradley, b. June 15, 1671, at Woodbridge, N. J.
V Elizabeth Bradley, b. Aug. 15, 1673, at Woodbridge, N. J.

603 JOHN LUM

Samuel Jennings of Southampton, L. I., in his will dated Jan. 5, 1758, speaks of two pieces of property there bounded by John Lum's property. John Lum is witness of will of Bethuel Reeve of Southampton, L. I., dated July 25, 1776. In State Census of that year for Southampton is John Lum with two males and three females in family. John Haines of Southampton in his will dated Jan. 12, 1778, speaks of John Lum's property adjoining his.

604 DAVID LUM

In Southampton Town Records, Vol. 9, page 281, David Lum "Yeoman" is witness of will of Joseph Rugg, dated Feb. 1, 1781. He was also a witness with John Lum of the will of Bethuel Reeve, July 25, 1776. He may have been the son of John Lum above. In Book A B, page 29, Suffolk Co., N. Y., it is stated letters of administration on estate of David Lum, Cordwainer, deceased, were granted July 1, 1789, to Phebe, the widow. Bond was given by her with sureties, Anthony Haines and Benjamin Haines, all of Southampton. Thomas and Nathaniel Treadwell were witnesses to bond.

605 ABIGAIL LUM

She was probably a daughter of Benjamin, and according to Cothren's Ancient Woodbury, md. in the Town of Woodbury, Aug. 11, 1747, or 1748, Elnathan Smith of Derby, Ct.

606 ELNATHAN LUM

In the Federal Census of 1790 he is given with wife and one son under 16 yrs. of age in Montgomery Co., N. Y. He is said to have lived at Charleston, formerly Mohawk, Montgomery Co., but no further record of him has been found. He was probably a son of Andrew who was born at New Milford and went North to Mass., and Vermont and later over into New York State.

607 ALBERT CARTER LUM

He is said to have been born in Phila. in 1860, and died in Washington, D. C., in 1908. His father was Frank Lum, an Englishman. He md. Nellie Murphy who was living a widow in Chicago in 1913 with four children. She wrote at the time that her late husband had no brothers or sisters living.

608 CHRISTOPHER LUM

Who Christopher Lum was is not learned, but he died in Roxbury, Ct., Jan. 8, 1826.

609 SARAH LUM

md. at Woodbury, Ct., Aug. 21, 1795, Noah Strong, (son of Selah), who was baptized Jan. 28, 1770. See Cothren's "Ancient Woodbury." The Strong Genealogy, however, states that Noah Strong was born Jan. 28, 1770; farmer of Southbury, Ct., later of Bethany, Ct., where he died July, 1847, aet. 77; md. Sarah LaVoy, daughter of James and Clarissa (Foote) LaVoy. Apparently there is a mistake in "Ancient Woodbury," unless she was a widow Lum when married to Noah Strong. No connection has been traced to other Connecticut Lum families.

610 JERUSHA LUM

She md. Sept., 1821, Richard Hine, who was born Feb. 18, 1798, d. Nov. 9, 1864, at Woodbury, Ct. She was called "Aunt Peter," and may have been the daughter of a Peter Lum. She died Nov. 18, 1885, aet. 84, at Waterbury, Ct. have not been able to identify her further. Descendants made no reply. Richard and Jerusha (Lum) Hine had three daughters as follows:

I Elizabeth Hine.

md. Charles Hotchkiss, a banker of Bridgeport, Ct.

II Augusta Hine.

md. Samuel R. Newell, a mfr. of Springfield, Mass., and she was living there in 1913 at 69 Bowdoin Street.

III Louise Hine.

md. Sept. 28, 1858, Franklin Luther Curtis, a banker of Waterbury, who was born Jan. 19, 1835, and had children:

Henry, Howard and Ethel Louise.

611 CURTIS LUM

He is stated to have been killed in Rev. War, and to have been from Connecticut. If there was such a person, he was probably a son of Andrew or Jonathan of New Milford, Ct.

612 SARAH LUM

She was born in Yorkshire, Eng., Dec. 9, 1805, and came with her parents, Abraham and Ann Lum, in 1809. Abraham Lum was born Dec. 11, 1782, and lived at Zanesville, O., from 1819 till time of his death, Nov. 2, 1849. His wife Ann was born in Yorkshire, Eng., June 4, 1784, and died at Zanesville, O., July 16, 1872. Abraham Lum's will recorded in Zanesville, O., in Book D, pages 347/8/9, names wife Ann, sons John and Abraham, and daughters Elizabeth Sackman, Sarah Harrison, Mary Williams and Ann Henderson. Sarah Lum md. John H. Harrison, b. Mch. 6, 1798, the son of Samuel and Abigail (Crane) Harrison. Their children were:

- I Margaret A. Harrison, b. July 29, 1823.
- II Elizabeth C. Harrison, b. Mch. 17, 1825.
- III George Harrison, b. July 6, 1826.
- IV Mary L. Harrison, b. Dec. 14, 1829.
- V George P. Harrison, b. Nov. 16, 1830.
- VI Melipha Harrison, b. Dec. 28, 1832.
- VII Amelia M. Harrison, b. Aug. 5, 1834.
- VIII Charles B. Harrison, b. Nov. 13, 1836.
- IX Alice H. Harrison, b. Apl. 6, 1841.
- X Edith E. Harrison, b. Aug. 5, 1843.
- XI William H. Harrison, b. about 1845.

613 ELNATHAN LUM

In order to give an account of Charles Lum who was Captain in 38th Reg't, and Major of the 44th British Regiment in American Rev. War, it will be of interest to start with his grandfather Elnathan.

Playfair's British Baronetage, Vol. 1, covering Ireland, says under title of Lum, "This respectable family is of English extraction." Elnathan Lum, the first who settled in Ireland was descended from an ancient Yorkshire family. Being of an adventurous spirit he, about the middle of the reign of King Charles II settled in Dublin, where he became an eminent banker and purchased the estate now called Lumville. He was returned to Parliament in 1692, and 5 for the Borough of Carlingford. He married in Dublin, Sept. 28, 1680, Dorothy, daughter of Peter Purefoy, Esq., a member of Parliament for Phillipstown, sister and sole heiress of Col. William Purefoy, member of Parliament for the Kings County in reign of Queen Anne, who accompanied Cromwell to Ireland. Elnathan Lum and Dorothy, his wife, both died in 1708, as shown by their wills. The children of Elnathan and Dorothy (Purefoy) Lum were:

I Mary, b. 1681.

md. Charles Moore, first Lord Tullemore.

II Purefoy.

died unmarried.

614 III Thomas.

His will was proved in 1744.

IV Elizabeth.

md. Cooley Lyons, Esq., of River Lyons, Kings Co.

V Hannah.

died unmarried.

614 THOMAS LUM

He md. Sarah Heaton, eldest daughter and co-heir of Francis Heaton, Esq., of Mount Heaton in Kings Co. Sarah Heaton was descendant of King Edward I of England, and King Philip the Hardy of France, as follows: Sarah Heaton (her will is dated Apl. 8, 1749, and proved July 12, 1756), was the dau. of Francis Heaton, whose will is dated May 29, 1735, and prob. June 19, 1736, and his wife, Jane Curtis, dau. of Robert of Roscrea. Francis Heaton was the son of Richard Heaton whose will is dated Aug. 20, 1666, prob. Feb. 6, 1667, in Moorhouse, Yorkshire, and his wife Grissel Medhope. Grissel Medhope was the dau. of Francis Medhope and Margery Trever, dau. of Sir Edward Trever, Knight. Francis Medhope was the son of Edmond Medhope, who died Sept. 19, 1621, and his wife Elizabeth Philips, was the daughter of Sir John Philips (of Picton Castle, Knight, and Bart, ancestor to Lord Milford), and his wife Anne Perrot. Anne Perrot was daughter of Sir John Perrot, Knight, and Lord Deputy of Ireland, and his wife, Jeane Priest, dau. of Hugh. Sir John Perrot was son of Sir Thomas Perrot, Knight, and his wife, Mary Berkeley. Mary Berkeley was dau. of James Berkeley of Thornbury, in Gloucestershire, and his wife, Susan Veale. James Berkeley was son of Maurice Lord Berkeley, and his wife, Isabel Meade, dau. of Philip, Alderman of Bristol. Maurice Lord Berkeley was son of James Lord Berkeley, and his wife, Isabel Mowbray, whose first husband was Henry DeFoorais. Isabel Mowbrey was dau. of Thomas Mowbray, Duke of Norfolk, Earl Marshall of England, and his wife, Elizabeth Fitz-Alan, sister and co-heir of Thomas Fitz-Alan, Earl of Arundel and Surrey. Thomas Mowbray was son of John Lord Mowbray, born 15 Edward III, slain by the Turks in the Holy Land in 1368, and his wife Elizabeth Segrave. Elizabeth Segrave was daughter of John Lord Segrave, who died 27 Edward III, and his wife, Margaret de Brotherton, created Duchess of Norfolk for life Sept. 29, 1398, 21st yr. of Richard II, whose 2nd husband was Walter Marnoy, Knight. Margaret de Brotherton was dau. of Thomas de Brotherton, (Earl of Norfolk, and Earl Marshall of England), and his wife, Alice Halys, dau. of Sir Roger of Harwich, Knight. Thomas de Brotherton was son of Edward I, King of England, and his wife, Margaret, dau. of Philip, the Hardy, King of France. The children of Thomas and Sarah (Heaton) Lum were:

- I Francis of Lumville, b. 1733.
created Bart Feb. 24, 1774; died without issue. Baronetcy being hereditary title, it became extinct. He md. Apl. 17, 1756, Rebecca Amelia, 3rd dau. and co-heir of Richard Forster of Dublin. He was Governor of Ross Castle, Dublin, in 1762. He died in March, 1796. Arms were Or, 3 mullets, S a.
- II Charles.
succeeded to estate of his brother, Francis. In the American War he was Major of the 44th British Reg't and on night of Jan. 25, 1780, went over from Powles Hook to Newark and burnt the academy with a company of Hessian troops. At conclusion of American War he retired, but was a Col. of a corps of Volunteers in 1783.
- III Jane.
- IV Elizabeth.
died unmarried.
- V Hester.
was living in 1808; unmarried.
- VI Dorothy.
